CASA's 30th Anniversary

Child Advocates of Silicon Valley (CASA) held its 30th Anniversary Gala celebrating CASA Heroes and Legends at Club Auto Sport in May. The event raised more than $370,000 for foster children in Santa Clara County. During the evening, six CASA Heroes and Legends were honored for their transformative work that has helped impact the lives of thousands of foster youth: Nora Manchester, co-founder of Child Advocates and the agency's first executive director; Judge Leonard Edwards, retired Superior Court Judge and co-founder of Child Advocates; Moe Whitaker, the first CASA volunteer and former CASA specialist; Ann Whyte, former CASA, former CASA specialist and current CASA mentor; Vilma Palette, former board member and recruiting and training coordinator; and Kevin Gardner, former CASA volunteer and board member.
